OUTSTANDING FEES

Payments made after the final due date will incur a 2% late fee.

A full term of unpaid fees can result in a review of your child's enrolment if no explanation is given. The college will also consider legal action to recover outstanding fees if realistic debt repayment plan is not established.

Once forwarded to the debt collection agency, the college will no longer handle the debt. All future communication will occur via the debt collection agency on behalf of the College.

Before considering new enrolments for siblings, the family must settle any outstanding school fees

STUDENT WITHDRAWAL

Where a parent / guardian wishes to withdraw a student from the College, 5 weeks' notice, in writing, is required along with the lodgement of a Student Exit Form, which must be submitted to the front office. All student withdrawals without the 5 weeks' notice will incur a school fee charge of 5 weeks.
